

New York Junior Holstein Association Prepared Speech Contest

Purpose

The New York State Junior Holstein Association Speech Contest is designed to develop the ability of all members to express themselves. The event will be held in conjunction with the New York Junior Holstein Convention.

Copies of the rules and score sheet will be supplied to participants in advance of the event.

Eligibility

1. Participants must be a member of the New York Holstein Association
2. Age division breakdown is as follows: (as of January 1, 2021)

Novice Division:	9 and under
Junior Division:	10-13 years of age
Intermediate Division:	14-17 years of age
Senior Division:	18-21 years of age

All contestants must be registered to participate in the contest by December 31st prior to the competition.

Subjects

Contestants may choose any subject pertaining to Holsteins and the dairy industry. For subject matter we wish to encourage exploration and understanding of any and all entities of the dairy industry, emphasizing the Holstein's role. Current policies, affairs and trends in the industry are suitable topics.

Time Limit

In the Senior Division: Each presentation should be a minimum of eight minutes and a maximum of ten minutes.

In the Intermediate Division: Each speech shall be a minimum of six minutes and a maximum of eight minutes.

In the Junior Division: Each speech shall be a minimum of three minutes and a maximum of five minutes.

Each contestant will be allowed five minutes in which the judging committee will ask questions relating to his or her speech. Deductions will be made from the score of each judge for speeches that are under the time limit or over the time limit in length.

Event Procedures

1. The Education Committee will be in charge of the contest. Three competent and unbiased judges will be selected by the Committee chairperson to judge the contest.
2. Contestants will be notified of their appointment time. A contestant will be permitted to use notes but excessive reference to notes may result in deduction from his or her score. Contestants in the novice and junior divisions will be permitted to use posters or props in order to present their speeches. Contestants will be judged on how they present the information and not on creativity and design of the props and posters.
3. A timekeeper will be designated who will record the time used by each contestant in delivering his or her speech, noting under time and overtime, if any, for which deductions will be made.
4. Five minutes will be allotted at the completion of speeches to allow judges to ask questions. Each contestant will be scored on his or her ability to answer the judges' questions.
5. When all contestants have finished speaking, each judge will total his or her score on their performance. The judges will determine a first, second, and third place for each age division.

Scoring

When all contestants have finished speaking, each judge will total their scores for each speech. The three judges scores combined will determine the final placings.
